Introduction

Darul Uloom Online is a web based Islamic institute. It is a continuation of the chain of sacred schools (مدارس) that have transferred the legacy of knowledge from one generation to another. This online institute was founded to preserve and deliver knowledge to men and women of all ages from all over the world. It follows a comprehensive, five year Alim Preparatory Course, and the final 6th year dawrah Hadith, covering the following subjects:

- Arabic Grammar (Syntax and Morphology)
- Arabic Literature (Speech, Composition, and Rhetoric)
- Islamic Theology ('Aqidah)
- Principles of Islamic Jurisprudence (Usul al-Fiqh)
- Fiqh (Jurisprudence)
- 'Ulum al-Hadith (Sciences of Hadith Interpretation)
- Hadith (Prophetic Traditions)
- Usul al-Tafsir (Principles of Exegesis)
- Tafsir al-Quran (Exegesis)
- Sirah (Prophetic Biography)

A group of designated Islamic scholars have designed the curriculum to suit the schedules of even the busiest students. Imagine studying the Alim course in the traditional way right from your home under highly educated and designated scholars of Islam. Imagine joining them through live video conferencing and being among those who followed the command of the Prophet (PBUH): one who is present must convey (the knowledge) to one who is absent.

Using an English, then Arabic medium, our six year Islamic studies course is designed and developed to cater specifically to English-speaking students. Our audience is men and women, who intended to study the Islamic sciences, but were prevented by their jobs or family responsibilities. This course is also beneficial for students in universities and colleges who desire to serve Islam, but whose ongoing education does not allow them to enroll in a full-time Islamic institute.

It also targets those who cannot afford to travel abroad to study. Here is a chance for all of you to study Islam the traditional way and later serve your community as an Alim or Alimah.
Programs

- Five year Alim Preparatory Course:

  Students have three options in this course: Full time, Part Time A, Part Time B. Full time students will attend classes 3 hours per day for five days. 15 hours per week. Part Time A students will attend classes 9-11 hours per week. Part Time B students will attend classes 5-7 hours per week. For Part Time students, the hours vary depending on the courses they choose to take.

  After students complete five years of course work, they will have two options. They can go to their local madrasah or scholar for their dawrah hadith sixth year or, if they meet the requirements, they can apply to Darul Uloom Online for their sixth year.

- Sixth Year at DUO: *Dawrah Hadith Requirements:

  The requirements for sixth year ensure that our students maintain and retain the highest caliber of Islamic knowledge and morals. Our students will carry their knowledge to benefit the present and future generations. Therefore we have set the following prerequisites for all the students:

  1. Maintain a minimum average of 85 in each of the subjects.
  2. Provide referrals of at least two certified scholars. One referral can be from a teacher at DUO, and one must be from outside the institute.
  3. Submit a minimum 800 word essay describing what you have gained and your future goals. What do you hope to accomplish as an Islamic scholar?
  4. Students must also demonstrate the sunnah of the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) in their daily lives.
  5. Assessment Exam

  After passing the prerequisites, students will be interviewed by the DUO panel. The interview will be the final determination in accepting the student for sixth year.

- Intensive Arabic Course:

  The Intensive Arabic course is included in the course work of the Alim Preparatory course. This course is also offered separately for students who wish to learn and master Arabic.
Medium of Instruction

Alim Preparatory Course:

The medium of instruction starts with a combination of English and basic Arabic in the first year. As the students begin to master the Arabic language; the medium shifts to Arabic by the fourth year. Our students can expect to be proficient in Arabic language by the time they graduate from our institute.

Begins with an introduction to the study of Imam Muhammad ibn Isma‘il al-Bukhari’s famed “Al-Jami’ Al-Musnad As-Sahih Al-Mukhtasar min Umur Rasul Allah sallallahu ‘alayhi wa sallam wa Sunanihi wa Ayyamihi”. This class has 2 sessions. In the first session, students will cover a detailed explanation and commentary of the entire book, from the Chapter of Revelation (bad‘i al-wahi) to the Chapter of Praiseworthy Qualities (manaqib). Lectures will focus on understanding the meanings of the hadiths as well as all related legal commentary. In the second session, Students will begin the course with the Chapter on the Prophet’s Campaigns (maghazi) and continue until the entire book and its related commentary is completed. In both Bukhari classes, special emphasis is placed on understanding Imam Bukhari’s choice of chapter headings and his oft-repeated statement, “Some people said...”.

Book: Sahih Bukhari

HAD 620: Hadith (Prophetic Traditions)

The study of Imam Muslim’s Sahih focuses on the commentary of the chapters on faith (iman) and selected chapters on business and civil law. The introduction of the Sahih, in which Imam Muslim discusses some fundamental principles of hadith criticism, begins the course and discussion of the differences between Imam Muslim’s principles and his contemporaries in the field of hadith is especially emphasized.

Book: Sahih Muslim

HAD 630: Hadith (Prophetic Traditions)

The study of Imam Tirmidhi’s famous hadith collection will focus on the jurisprudence of the prophetic narrations. In this course, students will analyze the hadiths to gain a greater understanding of the legal evidences employed by the great jurists of Islam. A comparative study of the opinions of each school of jurisprudence will be accompanied by an in-depth analysis of their evidences and reasons why certain opinions were given preference over others.

Book: Jami' al-Tirmidhī

HAD 640: Hadith (Prophetic Traditions)

Imam Abu Dawud’s book is unique amongst the large collections of hadith due to its excellent organizational scheme and presentation of juristic evidences. Students will study selected chapters of this book, beginning with the Chapter of Purity, and focus on understanding the method of legal derivation as employed by the jurists to the prophetic narrations.

Book: Sunan Abi Dāwūd

HAD 650: Hadith (Prophetic Traditions)

The study of Imam Nasa’i’s Sunan emphasizes recognizing the subtle details of hadith chains. While much discussion will include the meanings of the traditions and the legal implications of each hadith, more focus will be given to the nuances of the study of hadith chains and recognizing mistakes in historical transmission as expounded upon by Imam Nasa’i himself.

Book: Sunan an-Nisā’ī
HAD 660: Hadith (Prophetic Traditions)
This course will cover three books of hadith, namely two editions of Imam Malik’s renowned Muwatta and Imam Ibn Majah’s Sunan. The editions of both Muhammad ibn al-Hasan al-Shaybani and Yahya ibn Yahya al-Laythi of Malik’s Muwatta will be covered and a comparative study of both editions will be included. In Ibn Majah’s Sunan, students will cover the chapters on faith, knowledge, and the virtues of the Companions.
Book: Sunan Ibn Mājah  Muwatta Malik, Muwatta Muhammad

HAD 660: Hadith (Prophetic Traditions)
Considered the best book in the field of mukhtalaf al-hadith (reconciling apparently contradictory narrations), Imam Tahawi’s Sharh Ma’ani al-Athar is an essential study for every student of fiqh and hadith.
Book: Sharh Ma’ani al-Athar
